

Partial list of Garry D. Gitzen articles, books, etc.

Garry D. Gitzen is curator of the private library of M. Wayne Jensen Jr., a collection of 16th – 18th century exploration of the Pacific Coast. Mr. Gitzen has lectured throughout Oregon and has written extensively on the folklore behind conventional theories purporting Francis Drake's landing on the shores of California. As an Oregon historian, his research for the past thirty years has concentrated on the Pacific Coast cartography, ethnology, topography of Nehalem Bay and surrounding areas while focusing on early navigation and surveying methods.

Rickard Madox and Robert Heizer, MS 2012

Treasure Rocks of Neah-kah-nie Mountain, Fort Nehalem Publish Book, 2012

Gerard Mercator Letter, Fort Nehalem Publishing, Dec 2012

Drake Never Set Foot in California, Fort Nehalem Publishing, 2012

Edward Wright's World Chart 1599, Terrae Incognitae, Vol. 46.1, April 2014, Society for the History of Discoveries

Oregon's Stolen History, MS, 2012

Oregon's Stolen History Narrative, Draft

The Drake Question, Oregon's Stolen History, MS 2013

Real Treasure Discovered on Neahkahnie Mountain, The Secret voyage of Sir Francis Drake to the North Oregon Coast, 2003, Ekahni Publishing, Wheeler

Francis Drake in Nehalem Bay 1579, Setting the Historical Record Straight, Ekahnie Publishing, 2008, Fort Nehalem Publishing, 2012

Francis Drake and the Nehalem Indians, Fort Nehalem Publishing, 2009

Francis Drake Survey of Neahkahnie Mountain, Fort Nehalem Publishing, 2009

How California Stole Oregon's History, MS, 9/2011

Limantour Land Case with Davidson and Greenhow, MS, 10/13

First Europeans in the Pacific Northwest, MS, 2011, submitted OHQ

Oregon Territory and Robert Greenhow, MS, 2012

Of All the Theorized Drake Landing Sites, MS, 2012

The Greatest US Land Heists in History, MS, 10/2013

Is it California or Oregon's History?, MS, 8/12, submitted OHQ

“Some notes of Charles L`ecluse a native of Gaul, Upon the history of spices by Garcia de Orta's Aromatum et Simplicium Historia 1582”, editor and introduction, 8/2011

Building Tillamook county Scenic Highway, Fort Nehalem Publishing, 2010

Navigational Instruments Available at the Time of Drake, MS, 2/2012

Texas coast one had just been added, MS, Jan, 2012

Wheeler's No. 1 Mailbox Holder Relinquishes Her Key, Nehalem Valley Historical Quarterly, 12/10

Jose Limantour's San Francisco Land Claim, MS, 2013

Herbert E. Bolton's knowledge, 6 pgs., 9/2012,

George Davidson's reason for limiting Drake to 42 degrees N latitude, 15 pgs., 1/12.

What Henry Wagner thought of George Davidson, Fort Nehalem Publishing, blog

Northern Latitudes by Drake, Dec 2012, Fort Nehalem Publishing, blog

An event that never happened, blog 11/27 2011

